

Hansen FY25 Guidance Update - Improved Profitability

14th July 2025

Hansen Technologies Limited (ASX: HSN), a leading provider of industry-specific software products to the energy & utilities and communications & media industries, announces an upward revision to its FY25 Underlying & Cash EBITDA guidance.

Guidance Update - Improved Profitability

Hansen is pleased to announce an upward revision to its FY25 Underlying & Cash EBITDA guidance, driven by improved operating efficiencies, disciplined cost management, and a positive earnings contribution from powercloud, which returned to profitability ahead of expectations at the time of acquisition. The FY25 Underlying EBITDA margin is now anticipated to be approximately 28% and the FY25 Cash EBITDA Margin is expected to be approximately 24%. Underlying EBITDA and Cash EBITDA are now expected to be respectively 19-21% and 20-22% higher in FY25 compared with FY24.

Industry tailwinds from both Hansen verticals are driving increased demand for the Group's products and services globally. However, due to project timing and customer-driven factors, some revenue will shift to FY26, resulting in a modest adjustment to the previous revenue guidance as outlined below. Notwithstanding this adjustment, FY25 is still expected to deliver solid operating revenue growth of approximately 11% compared with FY24, and growth of approximately 5% excluding the impact of the powercloud acquisition. The Company has a solid pipeline of committed business and remains optimistic about its growth potential beyond FY25.

Previous Guidance

Operating Revenue

A$398m – $405m

A$391m - $393m

Underlying EBITDA¹

A$76m – $85m

A$92m - $94m

Underlying EBITDA is a non-IFRS term, defined as earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation and excluding net foreign exchange gains (losses) and separately disclosed Items, which represent the one-off costs during the period.

Cash EBITDA is Underlying EBITDA less capitalised development costs.
